Intermediate Applications of FrontPage 2003

What You Will Learn 1

Using the Tasks View 2
- Creating a New Task 2
- Modifying an Existing Task 3
- Completing a Task 4
- Removing Tasks 4
- Printing the Task List 4

Working with Layers 5
- Adding a New Layer 6
- Adding Content to a Layer 6
- Selecting, Moving, and Resizing a Layer 7
- Modifying Layer Properties 8

Exercise 1 11

Working with Frames 12
- Understanding the Advantages and Disadvantages of Frames 12
- Creating a Page with Frames 12
- Changing Frame Properties 18
- Splitting a Frame 19
- Using Frames with Non-Compliant Browsers 19
- Using Hyperlinks Within Frames 20

Exercise 2 25

Using Bookmarks 27
- Creating the Bookmarks 27
- Creating Hyperlinks to Bookmarks 28

Exercise 3 30

Creating Image Maps 31

Exercise 4 33

Creating a Photo Gallery 34

Exercise 5 39

Performing a Final Site Check 40
- Checking Window Size and Connection Speed 40
- Checking Browser Compatibility 41
- Checking Spelling 43

Running Reports 47

Publishing a Site 50

Appendix A: Using the Navigation View 54
Setting Up the Navigation Structure 54
Displaying Contact Information with Shared Borders 55
Adding Navigation Buttons 59

Appendix B: FrontPage and Web-Safe Colors 62
Web-Safe Colors 62
Hexadecimal Notation 62
Web-Safe Hexadecimal Notation 63

Appendix C: Planning and Organizing Before You Begin 64
Determining Your Needs and Goals 64
Organizing Pages 64
Determining Topics 64

Appendix D: Principles of Good Web Page Design 65

Appendix E: Avoiding Common Design Errors 66
Too Much Glitz 66
Type That Is Difficult To Read 66
Useless Graphics 67
Too Many Horizontal Lines 67
Inability to Find Contact Name/Number 67
Other Design Problems 67

Appendix F: Solutions to Exercises 68