

Ípvt qf wevkqp 'vq'Hrcuj 'CevkqpUetkr v

Introduction.....	1
Scripting Concepts and Terminology	2
Scripting Is Communication	2
Programming is Logic.....	2
ActionScript Terminology: Class, Object, Property, and Method.....	3
Commenting.....	3
ActionScript Color Coding and Troubleshooting.....	4
ActionScript Syntax	6
Choosing the Flash Player	7
Creating a Simple Timeline Action	8
Using Script Assist.....	8
Using Code Snippets.....	9
Planning Before You Begin	9
Opening the Actions Panel and Creating a Script.....	10
Specifying a Scene and a Frame	12
Setting a Target Frame.....	12
Labeling Frames.....	12
Events.....	14
addEventListener Method.....	14
Scripting a Button	15
Planning the Script.....	15
Scripting a Navigation Button	15
Adding a Button to Navigate to a URL	19
Exercise 1.....	21
Using Movie Clips with ActionScript.....	22
Creating a Movie Clip.....	22
Adding Actions to a Movie Clip.....	23
Making a Button Play a Movie Clip	24
Script Review	26
Exercise 2.....	27
Tools for Testing Your Movies.....	28
The Trace Function	28
Simulating Target Download Speed.....	29

Creating Variables and Constants	30
Variable Declaration and Data Typing	30
Creating Constants	32
Variable Example with the Trace Window.....	32
Text Boxes	34
Input Text Boxes as Variables	34
Script Review	39
Exercise 3.....	40
Working with Movie Clips Properties	41
Select an Action and Object.....	42
Exercise 4.....	44
Tweening With ActionScript	45
Importing Flash Classes.....	45
Adding EventListeners to the Buttons	46
Adding ActionScript Tweens.....	46
Exercise 5.....	49
Loading External SWF files.....	50
Using Flash User Interface Components	50
Using a User Interface List Component to Vary the Source	52
Exercise 6.....	54
Appendix A: Keywords	55
Appendix B: Operators	56
Appendix C: Escape Characters.....	58
Appendix D: Recommended Web Resources.....	59
Appendix E: ActionScript 3.0 Compatibility with Previous Versions	60
Appendix F: Solutions to Exercises.....	61